LOCAL NEWS.

Michael Boylan, Sr., had a hand badly bitten the other night. He tried to stop a war between two dogs.

The teachers in the Baptist Sunday school have organized a teachers' meeting, with Rev. Dr. Archibald as leader.

Business has been a little quiet in town this week. The farmers are all hard at work and come into the village only when compelled to.

The listers are substantially through with their work and give notice in another column of the time and place for hearing "aggrieved" tax-payers.

Mr. Chadwick has sold to New York men the machinery in the old woollen mill and it is being removed to make room for the electric-light machinery.

There is no change to note in the local produce market. The best butter still sells at 16 cents, and the most of that brought in at 15, while eggs bring but 10 cents a dozen.

The event of next week, socially, will be the ball at the town hall on the evening of Friday. The Howard Opera House orchestra of Burlington has been engaged to provide the music.

Dr. Prime and Mr. F. H. Farrington of Brandon were in town Monday night to conclude a contract with Mr. Clinton Smith for extensive repairs on the Congregational church of their town.

The boys composing the athletic association of the Graded school propose to have a field day and are circulating a subscription paper for the purpose of raising funds to defray the expense.

Mr. Williamson's shipment to the Boston market on Monday consisted of 18 cows, 161 calves, six hogs and one sheep. M. S. Carr on Tuesday shipped to New Haven, Conn., 18 cows and 50 calves.

Mr. Durham has returned to town and work will be resumed on Monday at the Severance quarry. Final arrangements for pushing things have not yet been completed, but something is to be done this season.

The Summer farm, north of Chipman hill, the property of Mr. Twitchell, is occupied now by Mr. E. A. Ricker, late of Weybridge, who is extensively engaged in training fast horses. He has eleven in his stable.

Mr. D. L. Morgan of Rutland, one of the men employed under Gen. Henry to take the mortgage indebtedness for the census, has been at work here and elsewhere in the county. He has completed his work in Middlebury.

Mr. O. Severance, acting for the village trustees, has done a land-office business in trimming up the shade-trees in the parks and along the streets. Many willows have been cut down entirely, and their loss will not be severely felt.

All the numerous cases brought by the receiver of the bankrupt Lycoming Fire Insurance Co. of Philadelphia, to recover assessments levied upon residents of this and surrounding towns, have been discontinued, the receiver paying the costs.

Postmaster Stewart announces that all mails will close 15 minutes earlier than usual during the week beginning the 5th inst. and ending the 12th. The postmaster-general has ordered a minute accounting of all mail matter sent out during that time.

The name of Mr. George W. Pinney was by some one's error omitted from the list of the prudential committee of the West Cemetery association, published last week. Subscriptions for making the designed improvements on the premises are being solicited.

Russel Post, G. A. R., at its meeting April 16, extended a unanimous vote of thanks to the Woman's Relief corps, the Ladies' Aid society and the people of the village for their kindness in assisting in the celebration of the anniversary of Lee's surrender, April 9. The entertainment helped the treasury of the post to the amount of nearly $100.

W. H. Bliss, Esq., and family have taken possession of the Severance house on North Pleasant street, which he has bought. Postmaster Stewart and family, who have lived there the past year, have taken up their abode in Col. Tracy's house on Court street. H. C. Royce, Esq., owner of the house vacated by Mr. Bliss, is repairing it and will shortly occupy it.

Probably the worst piece of road in the county today is that from the freight depot to the bridge at the paper-mill falls. More than 50 loaded teams pass over it every day, and the consequences of this traffic and the rainy weather of the last year and a half are that the ruts are all the way from six inches to a foot and a half deep. It required four teams and a jack-screw to start up a load which stuck there on Wednesday. It is likely that extensive repairs will be made upon the road the present season.

The rain on Sunday raised the water in the New Haven river and Mr. Fisher of the Green Mountain Pulp Co. and a gang of men have been up there all the week driving down to the creek the logs which were stranded just below New Haven Mills when the water fell, three weeks ago. The work of getting into the boom at the lower mill the logs driven down Otter creek from Brandon was finished on Saturday. It was the easiest and most successful drive the company has ever made.

The base-ball nine of the college went to Burlington on Saturday and played the nine of the medical college. The local players did not make a run, but the "medics" made only three. The facts of the case are thus given by the Rutland Herald's Burlington correspondent: "It may be 'base-ball' to represent to the public that a team is composed of medical students alone while professionals are paid a fancy salary to come here for a day or week, but it is not honorable. The Middlebury team played an almost faultless game and are entitled to much credit for their ability to thus cope with professionals."

The College Glee club gave a very excellent concert at the town hall on Wednesday evening before a large audience. The members of the club are Messrs. G. E. Hesselgrave and D. H. Agnew, first tenors; E. W. Benedict and Frank B. Seeley, second tenors; F. W. Thomas and Henry M. Goddard, first basses, and F. D. Boynton and John M. Thomas, second basses. Mr. P. G. Ross is the pianist and Mr. G. L. Hasseltine plays clarinet solos. The boys appear well and sing with skill and spirit. Last Friday night they were at Ticonderoga and had a crowded house, realizing over $150 net. Dr. Sheldon went there with them, taking the place of one of the members who was sick.

A NEW DEPARTMENT!

A Good many of our customers have asked us to add GROCERIES to our stock, to accommodate them (and make a small profit for ourselves). We have decided to put in a line of
